What are the requirements to be a part of this successful team as an Owner-Driver?

What is involved in being an Owner-Driver/Contractor in the courier industry?

Quite often newcomers to the business have no understanding as to how the courier industry works. At New Zealand Couriers we will not consider any prospective Contractor until they have spent some time with some of our Owner-Drivers.

New prospects are sent out on different types of runs, ranging from residential to compact city and industrial areas. They will spend time with different groups of current contractors who are reasonably new to the business and senior couriers who have been with the company for a number of years. This can be arranged for you.

This is a very large commitment and we do not want anyone making a career change without knowing what is involved. New prospects are welcome to go out as many days as they choose before making a decision.

What licences do I need?

You must hold:

- a) A current and clean, unrestricted driver's licence relevant to the vehicle required.
- b) Transporting Dangerous or Hazardous Goods Endorsement (D Endorsement): Your local Land Transport NZ office will provide a list of "approved course providers" who conduct 12 day courses once or twice a month (approximate fee $230 + GST)
- c) A New Zealand Couriers Training Certificate: You must pass a series of Training modules before you start and then complete others in the first three months.

New Zealand Couriers can assist you by directing you to the correct sources of licences.

What type of vehicle do I require?

Vehicles MUST meet the following specifications:

- A vehicle less than 5 YEARS old must be purchased, but we prefer new
- All vehicles MUST have a 3+ Star ANCAP rating. <http://rightcar.govt.nz/>
- All vehicles MUST have a minimum cargo load space of 8.5 cubic meters
- All vehicles MUST have cage installed behind driver's seat
- All vehicles MUST have an alarm/immobiliser

Any vehicle purchase is to be made with the approval of the company (Manager/Operation Controller). DO NOT PURCHASE a van unless you have been successfully awarded a contract and the vehicle has been approved by the Manager.

The standard vehicle purchase options:

- ✓ Toyota Hi-ace (long wheel base, hi top) New shape.
- ✓ Ford Transit (long wheel base, hi top)
- ✓ Other makes such as VW, Fiat, LDV and Mercedes are perfectly suitable

Second-hand vehicles must be vetted by New Zealand Couriers prior to purchase.

Every newly purchased vehicle must be painted in New Zealand Couriers Company Red. The Company colours will be advised to you. And all vans must have the New Zealand Couriers decals applied by an approved supplier. All decals must be applied within three months of starting on the run as a New Zealand Couriers' Contractor.

What are some of the set-up costs involved?

As an Owner-Driver, all the set-up costs are at your expense. A lot of these are one-off costs and as such do not arise again until the vehicle is upgraded.

After your vehicle, the following requirements are necessary:

Decals, or Sign-writing & Painting

All vehicles are to be painted and decaled in the company livery prior to going on the road. If a van needs painting, the cost is approximately $2000 + GST, depending on vehicle.

All decals are vinyl graphics which take approximately 3 hours to apply, and will not be applied to sub-standard vehicles. Most van decals cost approximately $600 + GST for a Hi-ace and Ford Transit. These are applied by an authorised approved installer only.

Larger vehicles and trucks are subject to quotation.

Uniform

New Zealand Couriers has a range of uniform and this is a compulsory requirement. Cost is approximately $500+GST.

Naturally, the more you purchase the higher the cost. Contractors must wear their uniform while on duty at all at all times (non New Zealand Couriers branded clothing is not permitted).

Scanner

Freightways Mobile Data Terminal (Scanner) at a monthly lease cost of $110 per month + GST, used for scanning all freight that you pick up, have on board or deliver.

Hazardous Substance Endorsement

Your local Land Transport NZ office will provide a list of “approved course providers” who conduct 1-2 day courses one or twice a month (approximate fee $230 + GST)

Phone

You will be required to supply your own mobile phone which customer job bookings will be directed to and it will also be used for the local branch to be able to contact you. This device MUST stay with the vehicle at all times, including if you take leave. We suggest that you buy a business phone for this purpose and keep a separate phone for your personal/private use. This business phone just needs to be able to receive/make calls and txt messages.

What are my legal obligations?

If I need to take leave, what is the process I am required to follow?

The contractor will be responsible for finding their own relief driver who must meet the company's requirements (Licensing, Security Clearance, Uniform, and approved by Branch Manager). The contractor is also responsible for training the relief driver in their run.

We do understand unexpected leave will need to be taken at certain times, management team should be advised as soon as possible.

Contractors are required to be on their run in the month of December.

What are Contractor work hours and distances travelled?

To look after customers, the majority of contractors find they must start the day early (to sort their freight for delivery) and work late. Contractors are required to work Monday through to Friday and cover their runs for half a day on Saturday.

Contractors must conform to drivers' hours legislation and have the relevant rest breaks during their work days and appropriate breaks before resuming work on subsequent days.

Contractors distances are highly varied and can be anywhere from 100 kilometres to 300 kilometres a day. There are other types of courier runs such as our dedicated line haul services, which can travel higher kilometres.
