Conditions of Collection – Important to read

The booking must be made before 16:30hrs New Zealand time. The charge is subject to change from the card rate if collection location is outside the New Zealand Couriers collection area. Depending on location, collection may take up to 48 hours. Receiver has been advised that charges will depend on the greater of actual or volumetric weight. Any applicable duties and taxes will be charged to the account holder. Please be aware that it is the Sender who is responsible for addressing the consignment note as per your instructions. This form is for internal use and does not mean that we are able to control the completion of the Sender's consignment note. We recommend you send this completed form, or such to your sender to ensure they consign the package to you accordingly. New Zealand Couriers will endeavour to assist this process but will not be liable for inaccurately completed consignment notes.
